Art Beyond Sight

is an international initiative to promote art by and for people with vision loss and other disabilities, and to encourage multimodal approaches within the education and creative sectors.

Organized by Art Beyond Sight (ABS) and its 200+ partners around the world, Awareness Month recognizes that exposure to the arts and culture is crucial for the advancement of many key issues in the education and participation of people with vision loss and other disabilities. Our mission, Access for All, advocates that exposure to museums and other cultural institutions not only enriches, but improves the lives of people with disabilities by helping them to engage more fully with their communities and the world at large.

ABS was founded by Elisabeth Axel in 1987 on the premise that everyone must have access to the world's visual culture if they are to participate fully in their personal, social, professional, and global communities. Celebrating its 27th year, ABS continues to spearhead national and international initiatives to provide and promote the tangible benefits of art education, museum visits, and art making for children and adults with disabilities.
